FUNDRAISER RAISES
$27K FOR NCADA-BA

The National Council on Alcoholism and Other Drug Addictions-Bay Area (NCADA-BA) presented the second annual Evening of Dim Sum Fundraiser and Silent Auction on December 1. Sponsored in part by Philip J. Meyer Ltd., McRae and Co., Policelli Italian Lighting, Epoca, Derapage Design and Clarendon New York, Inc., the elegant affair was held at the Canton Seafood and Dim Sum Restaurant at 655 Folsom Street in San Francisco. The event raised a whopping 27,000 in support for the organization's many programs. Since 1957, the NCADA-BA's mission has been to reduce the prevalence and consequences of alcoholism and other drug addictions.

"QUEER EYE" GUY'S
NEW COOKBOOK

On Thursday, December 8th, W San Francisco invited guests to meet Ted Allen, food and wine connoisseur of the Bravo's hit show Queer Eye for the Straight Guy. Ted Allen chatted about his new culinary compendium The Foods You Want to Eat, and if the Fab 5 will ever come to San Francisco.

REACHES OUT TO INNER-CITY
CHILDREN AND THE ARTS

On November 16, 2005 Greystone Home Collection (located in the Pacific Design Center) hosted a live graffiti-art charity event for Inner City Arts and City Hearts, organizations promoting the arts to at-risk youth in Los Angeles. The party which featured award-winning local graffiti artists, Retna and Reyes, attracted a crowd of over 500 designers, art collectors and West Hollywood VIPs. Both artists created original pieces of art on GHC furniture and those finished pieces were later sold in a successful silent auction raising nearly $25,000.
